Saving Indonesia’s birds-of-paradise one village at a time

Autres langues vivantes
FR

Saving Indonesia’s birds-of-paradise one village at a time

Video file
Saving Indonesia’s birds-of-paradise one village at a time

Indonesian rainforests are home to 41 species of birds of paradise, 37 of which live in the jungles of the western part of the island of Papua. But villagers and environmentalists fear that these birds may one day disappear completely from Indonesian Papua, due to poaching and deforestation.

Niveau
Cycle 4
Lycée
Thématique
Langues vivantes
SES
Sciences