The big epidemics: From the plague to Covid-19

Autres langues vivantes
FR

The big epidemics: From the plague to Covid-19

Series of silk masks designed by Lebanese fashion designer Maria Hibri. Patricl Baz - AFP

This Agence France-Presse (AFP) package on epidemics is based on the agency's text, photo, graphics and video archives.

It was compiled by Olivier Thibault

Niveau

- Cycle 4
- Lycée

Thématique
Langues vivantes
SES
Sciences

- Before Covid-19: Other deadly epidemics
- Epidemics in words
- How epidemics impacted society
- Medical masks - an age-old history
- Wuhan, cut off from the world
- Friends fighting Covid-19
- Life after Ebola
- The Zika child
- 40 years ago, smallpox was eradicated
- Teen vaccine rebel
- Spanish flu: More deadly than World War I
- The plague is still out there
- Malaria thrives on back of Covid-19

Book traversal links for The big epidemics: From the plague to Covid-19

- Before Covid-19: Other deadly epidemics ›